SUSAN Y. SOONG
CLERK U.S. DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

1 beginning on August 10, 2015 (the date on which the official request to the Vatican City State was 2 made) and beginning December 23, 2015 (the date on which the official request to Italy was made).¹

3 On June 7, 2016, the Court issued a Second Order Suspending the Running of the Statute of 4 Limitations Under 18 U.S.C. § 3292. The Court found that an official request for evidence of offenses 5 had been made to the United Kingdom and that it reasonably appeared that such evidence was in the 6 United Kingdom. The Court ordered that the running of the statute of limitations be suspended 7 beginning on January 29, 2016 (the date on which the official request to the United Kingdom was 8 made).

9 The United States now respectfully applies for a third suspension order, based on an official 10 request for assistance to the United Kingdom on May 1, 2017. This application is supported by the July 11 27, 2018 Declaration of AUSA Robert S. Leach (concurrently filed) and the legal authorities discussed 12 below. Because an official request has been made for evidence of offenses in the United Kingdom and 13 it reasonably appears that such evidence is in the United Kingdom, the Court should suspend the running 14 of the statute of limitations. In addition, because this application relates to an ongoing grand-jury 15 investigation, which is secret pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 6(e), the United States 16 respectfully requests that the Court seal this application, the concurrently filed declaration, and the 17 concurrently submitted [Proposed] Third Order Suspending the Running of the Statute of Limitations 18 Under 18 U.S.C. § 3292. See Criminal Local Rule 6-2(b).

19 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

20 I. The Investigation

21 A grand jury in this district (Grand Jury 17-3) is conducting an investigation of former senior 22 officers of Autonomy Corporation plc (“Autonomy”), including former Chief Executive Officer Michael 23 Lynch, former Vice President of Finance Stephen Chamberlain, and former Chief Operating Officer and 25 ¹ The Court’s January 29, 2016 Order Suspending the Running of the Statute of Limitations Under 18 U.S.C. § 3292 is attached as Exhibit 6 to the July 27, 2018 Declaration of AUSA Robert S. Leach in 26 Support of the United States’ Ex Parte Application for an Order Suspending the Running of the Statute 27 of Limitations Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3292 (“July 27, 2018 Leach Decl.”). The Court’s June 7, 2016

 Second Order Suspending the Running of the Statute of Limitations Under 18 U.S.C. § 3292 is attached as Exhibit 7.

28 THE UNITED STATES’ EX PARTE APPLICATION FOR AN ORDER SUSPENDING THE RUNNING OF THE STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS
 PURSUANT TO 18 U.S.C. § 3292, CASE NO. CR-14-90491 MISC EMC

1 General Counsel Andrew Kanter, for the following possible criminal offenses: 15 U.S.C. §§ 78j(b) &
 2 78ff (securities fraud), 18 U.S.C. § 371 (conspiracy), 18 U.S.C. § 1341 (mail fraud), 18 U.S.C. § 1343 3 (wire fraud), 18 U.S.C. § 1348 (securities fraud), and 18 U.S.C. § 1349 (attempt and conspiracy). See 4 July 27, 2018 Leach Decl. ¶ 2.

5 Autonomy was a software developer with dual headquarters in the United Kingdom and San 6 Francisco, California. See January 29, 2016 Declaration of AUSA Robert S. Leach in Support of the 7 United States' Ex Parte Application for an Order Suspending the Statute of Limitations Pursuant to 18 8 U.S.C. § 3292 ("Jan. 29, 2016 Leach Decl.") ¶ 4 (attached as Exhibit 1 to the July 27, 2018 Declaration).
 9 Prior to October 2011, Autonomy was a publicly traded company whose shares were listed on the 10 London Stock Exchange. Id. Autonomy issued quarterly and annual financial statements that were 11 disseminated to the public by means of interstate and foreign wires. Id. In or about October 2011, 12 Hewlett-Packard Company, headquartered in Palo Alto, California, bought Autonomy for approximately 13 $11 billion. Id. HP acquired Autonomy by means of a cash offer by its wholly owned subsidiary, 14 Hewlett-Packard Vision B.V. ("HP Vision"), to buy the outstanding shares of Autonomy for £25.50 15 ($42.11) per share. Among other things, the grand jury is investigating whether executives at Autonomy 16 fraudulently inflated Autonomy's revenues in its financial statements and made false and misleading 17 statements to HP to induce it to buy Autonomy. See July 27, 2018 Leach Decl. ¶ 2.

18 Sushovan Hussain, Autonomy's former Chief Financial Officer, was indicted and found guilty of 19 numerous offenses relating to his work at Autonomy; to date, no indictment has been returned with 20 respect to Lynch, Chamberlain, and Kanter. See July 26, 2018 Leach Decl. ¶ 2.² The grand jury 21

22 ² On November 10, 2016, a prior grand jury (Grand Jury 16-1) returned an indictment against 23 Hussain charging him with one count of conspiracy to commit wire fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C.
 24 § 1349, and fourteen counts of wire fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1343. See Indictment, United 25 States v. Hussain, CR 16-462 CRB (N.D. Cal. Nov. 10, 2016), ECF No. 1. According to the indictment, 26 Hussain engaged in a scheme to defraud purchasers and sellers of securities of Autonomy and HP about 27 the true performance of Autonomy's business, its financial condition, and its prospects for growth. Id.
 On May 4, 2017, the grand jury returned a superseding indictment, adding a count of securities fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1348. See ECF No. 52. Hussain's case proceeded to trial, and on April 30, 2018, a petit jury found him guilty on each count. See ECF No. 394. Hussain's sentencing is scheduled for October 24, 2018. See ECF No. 418. Grand Jury 16-1 expired on or about November 16, 2017. The government has been presenting evidence to Grand Jury 17-3 since on or about March 15, 2018. See July 27, 2018 Leach Decl. ¶ 2.

3 Prior Official Requests

4 There have been several official requests to foreign governments for evidence in this matter.

5 On August 10, 2015, the Embassy of the United States of America to the Holy See delivered a 6 Diplomatic Note, No. 143-2015, to the Secretariat of State for the Holy See and the Vatican City State.³

7 See Jan. 29, 2016 Leach Decl. ¶ 25 & Ex. U. The Diplomatic Note stated that “the United States 8 Attorney’s Office (USAO) and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) are currently investigating the 9 financial reporting of Autonomy As part of the investigation, the USAO and FBI are requesting 10 information concerning a potential transaction in 2010 [between Autonomy and] the Vatican Apostolic 11 Library [BAV]. The Embassy respectfully asks if Monsignor Cesare Pasini, Prefect of the Vatican 12 Apostolic Library, would be willing to speak to investigators from the USAO and FBI about this 13 investigation.” Id. The Diplomatic Note attached a list of questions and documents the USAO and FBI 14 wished to discuss. Id.

15 On December 23, 2015, the Office of International Affairs of the Department of Justice (“OIA”) 16 made an official request to the Central Authority of Italy for legal assistance in obtaining evidence, 17 pursuant to the 2006 U.S.-Italy Mutual Legal Assistance Instrument (“Instrument”). See Jan. 29, 2016
18 Leach Decl. ¶¶ 28 & 29 & Exs. X & Y. The request sought business records, including agreements, 19 correspondence, and emails, from a number of Autonomy counter-parties (Sales Consulting, Auxilium, 20 Red Ventures, Postecom, and Poste) which would evidence whether Autonomy appropriately recorded 21 revenue on the transactions. Id.

22 On January 14, 2016, the Embassy of the United States of America to the Holy See delivered a 23 Diplomatic Note, No. 3-2016, to the Secretariat of State, enclosing a Request for International Judicial 24 Assistance from OIA. See Jan. 29, 2016 Leach Decl. ¶ 27 & Ex. U. The Request sought the production 25 of records of BAV relating to Autonomy during the period December 2009 to October 2011. Id.

27 ³ There is no treaty between the Vatican City State and the United States providing for mutual legal assistance.

28 THE UNITED STATES’ EX PARTE APPLICATION FOR AN ORDER SUSPENDING THE RUNNING OF THE STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS
PURSUANT TO 18 U.S.C. § 3292, CASE NO. CR-14-90491 MISC EMC

1 On January 29, 2016, OIA submitted a Request for Assistance in the Investigation of Autonomy 2 Corporation to the Central Authority of the United Kingdom (the “UK MLAT”). See June 7, 2016
 3 Declaration of AUSA Robert S. Leach in Support of the United States’ Ex Parte Application for an 4 Order Suspending the Running of the Statute of Limitations Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3292 (“June 7, 5 2016 Leach Decl.”) ¶ 19 & Ex. M (attached as Exhibit 2). The UK MLAT indicated the request was 6 made pursuant to the 1994 Treaty of Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters between the United 7 States of America and the United Kingdom, as amended. The UK MLAT sought the production of 8 (1) business records from Capita Registrars Limited (“Capita”), a company in the United Kingdom that 9 was engaged to act as a “receiving agent” in connection with the HP acquisition and handle payment of 10 acquisition funds to Autonomy shareholders; (2) bank and business records from the Royal Bank of 11 Scotland plc (“RBS”), the bank that investigators believed Capita used to establish accounts for the HP 12 acquisition; (3) telephone records relating to phone numbers investigators believed Hussain used during 13 the time period of the alleged fraud scheme; and (4) bank and brokerage records from various financial 14 institutions and investment firms in the United Kingdom, which investigators believed the subjects used 15 to receive money and property. Id.

16 In addition to these official requests, the United States has gathered additional evidence from and 17 conducted numerous witness interviews in foreign countries. See July 27, 2018 Leach Decl. ¶ 5.

18 III. The May 1, 2017 Official Request for Evidence in the United Kingdom

19 On May 1, 2017, OIA submitted a Supplemental Request for Assistance in the Investigation of 20 Autonomy Corporation to the Central Authority of the United Kingdom (the “Supplemental UK 21 MLAT”). See July 27, 2018 Leach Decl. ¶ 6 & Ex. 3. The Supplemental UK MLAT indicated the 22 request was made pursuant to the 1994 Treaty of Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters between 23 the United States of America and the United Kingdom, as amended. Id.

24 The Supplemental UK MLAT requested the production of (1) documents related to a “data 25 room” established by Autonomy’s UK counsel Slaughter and May in connection with HP’s due 26 diligence prior to acquisition of Autonomy and (2) documents prepared by Ernst & Young LLP in the 27

 28 THE UNITED STATES’ EX PARTE APPLICATION FOR AN ORDER SUSPENDING THE RUNNING OF THE STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

1 United Kingdom in connection with an audit of the financial statements of Autonomy Systems Limited 2 (“ASL”), an Autonomy subsidiary. Id.

3 As detailed in the Supplemental UK MLAT, Autonomy engaged Slaughter and May, a UK law 4 firm, to advise it in connection with the potential HP acquisition. Slaughter and May established a 5 virtual “data room” to enable Autonomy to share documents with HP and its advisors. Between August 6 1, 2011, and the date of the acquisition (approximately October 3, 2011), Autonomy officers forwarded 7 documents to Slaughter and May to be uploaded into the data room. See July 27, 2018 Leach Decl. ¶ 6 8 & Ex. 3.

9 As also detailed in the Supplemental UK MLAT, Ernst & Young LLP, a UK accounting firm 10 was hired to audit the financial statements of ASL, as ASL was required to file accurate audited 11 financial statements in the United Kingdom. Ernst & Young performed extensive audit work, and by 12 December 2013, it had incurred approximately £1.6 million in fees. On or about January 31, 2014, ASL 13 issued its Report and Financial Statements for the 10 month-period ending October 31, 2011 (the ASL 14 Report), which restated ASL’s previously-issued financial statements for the year ending December 31, 15 2010, principally relating to the recognition of revenue and costs. As a result of the restatement, ASL’s 16 revenue for the year ending December 31, 2010, was substantially reduced. The financial results in the 17 Report reflected adjustments for transactions by other Autonomy subsidiaries, which contributed to 18 Autonomy’s overall revenue in 2010 and the first two quarters of 2011. The ASL Report thus quantified 19 the magnitude by which Autonomy’s published annual and quarterly reports were misstated. See July 20 27, 2018 Leach Decl. ¶ 6 & Ex. 3.

21 The ASL Report included a report by Ernst & Young, signed by one of its partners, David Hales, 22 in which Ernst & Young stated that it could not express an opinion on the financial statements. Ernst & 23 Young listed various reasons for its disclaimer of opinion, including “[i]f additional information and 24 evidence had been available to the [Board of Directors of ASL], including information that might be 25 identified from the ongoing investigations, further adjustments might have been required to the reported 26 results.” Ernst & Young also stated “[n]otwithstanding our disclaimer of an opinion on the financial 27 statements, in our opinion the information given in the [ASL] Report for the financial year for which the 1 financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements.” See July 27, 2018 Leach 2 Decl. ¶ 6 & Ex. 3.

3 On or about December 13, 2017, the United Kingdom produced responsive documents from 4 Slaughter and May. See July 26, 2018 Leach Decl. ¶ 7 & Exs. 4 & 5. The United States has not yet 5 received documents in response to the request for Ernst & Young documents. See id.

6 LEGAL ANALYSIS

7 Title 18, United States Code, Section 3292 provides:

8 (a)(1) Upon application of the United States, filed before return of an 9 indictment, indicating that evidence of an offense is in a foreign country, 10 the district court before which a grand jury is empaneled to investigate the 11 offense shall suspend the running of the statute of limitations for the 12 offense if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that an official request has been made for such evidence and that it reasonably appears, or reasonably appeared at the time the request was made, that such evidence is, or was, in such foreign country.

13 (2) The court shall rule upon such application not later than thirty days 14 after the filing of the application.

15 (b) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, a period of 16 suspension under this section shall begin on the date on which the official 17 request is made and end on the date on which the foreign court or authority takes final action on the request.

18 (c) The total of all periods of suspension under this section with respect to 19 an offense—

20 (1) shall not exceed three years; and 21 (2) shall not extend a period within which a criminal case must be 22 initiated for more than six months if all foreign authorities take final action before such period would expire without regard to this section.

23 (d) As used in this section, the term “official request” means a letter 24 rogatory, a request under a treaty or convention, or any other request for 25 evidence made by a court of the United States or an authority of the 26 United States having criminal law enforcement responsibility, to a court or other authority of a foreign country.

27
 28 THE UNITED STATES’ EX PARTE APPLICATION FOR AN ORDER SUSPENDING THE RUNNING OF THE STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS
 PURSUANT TO 18 U.S.C. § 3292, CASE NO. CR-14-90491 MISC EMC

1 A suspension of the running of the statute of limitations is appropriate when the district court 2 finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, “that (1) an official request has been made for the evidence 3 and (2) it reasonably appears or appeared at the time the request was made that the evidence of the crime 4 is or was in a foreign country.” United States v. Jenkins, 633 F.3d 788, 797 (9th Cir. 2011).⁴ The 5 Section 3292 preponderance standard is quite broad and may be satisfied by “‘something of evidentiary 6 value . . . tending to prove it reasonably likely that evidence of the charged offenses is in a foreign 7 country.’” Id. at 798 (alteration in original) (quoting United States v. Trainor, 376 F.3d 1325, 1332-34 8 (11th Cir. 2004)). For example, in Jenkins, the Ninth Circuit held that a suspension order was 9 adequately supported by the sworn declaration of a person knowledgeable about the grand jury 10 investigation and the evidence already recovered “tending to indicate that further evidence of the 11 offenses was abroad.” Id.

12 An application under Section 3292 must be made prior to the return of an indictment. See United 13 States v. Miller, 830 F.2d 1073, 1076 (9th Cir. 1987) (“The statute itself specifies the only relevant time 14 the application must be made: ‘before return of an indictment.’”). The period of suspension begins on 15 the date on which the official request was made. See 18 U.S.C. § 3292(b). “The statute plainly 16 contemplates that the starting point for tolling the limitations period is the official request for evidence, 17 not the date the § 3292 motion is made or granted.” United States v. Bischel, 61 F.3d 1429, 1434 (9th 18 Cir. 1995); see also Jenkins, 633 F.3d at 799 (“[T]he only temporal requirements of a § 3292 application 19 are (1) that the official request for evidence in a foreign country be made before the statute of limitations 20 expires and (2) that the application for suspension be submitted to the district court before the indictment 21 is filed.”).

22 The period of suspension ends on “the date on which the foreign court or authority takes final 23 action on the request.” 18 U.S.C. § 3292(b). A foreign country is not deemed to have taken “final 24

25 ⁴ The government is not required to demonstrate a grand jury is actively investigating a particular 26 offense or has already heard evidence before a tolling order may be issued. See United States v.
DeGeorge, 380 F.3d 1203, 1213-14 (9th Cir. 2004). The phrase “the district court before which a grand 27 jury is impaneled to investigate the offense” in Section 3292 is a venue element specifying the particular court that may issue the tolling order. Id.

1 action" on an official request until it has made a "dispositive response" – that is, "disposition, up or 2 down, of each of the items" in the official request. Bischel, 61 F.3d at 1434; see Jenkins, 633 F.3d at 3 800; United States v. Hagege, 437 F.3d 943, 955-56 (9th Cir. 2006).

4 Here, the statutory elements for issuance of an order under Section 3292 are satisfied, based on 5 the Supplemental UK MLAT. The Supplemental UK MLAT, like prior requests in this matter, is an 6 official request because it is "a request under a treaty or convention" and a "request for evidence made 7 by . . . an authority of the United States having criminal law enforcement responsibility, to . . . [an] 8 authority of a foreign country." In addition, it reasonably appears that evidence of the offenses – 9 documents from the law firm engaged to represent Autonomy in the HP acquisition and documents from 10 an outside auditor reviewing an Autonomy subsidiary's restatement of its historical financial statements 11 – is located in the United Kingdom. Finally, no indictment has been returned against Lynch, 12 Chamberlain, or Kanter. For these reasons, the Court should find that an official request has been made 13 to the United Kingdom for evidence of the offenses under investigation and that it reasonably appears 14 that such evidence is in the United Kingdom. The Court should further suspend the statute of limitations 15 for such offenses beginning May 1, 2017, the date of the official request.

16 CONCLUSION

17 Based on the foregoing, the United States respectfully requests that the Court grant the 18 application and enter the proposed order suspending the statute of limitations under 18 U.S.C. § 3292 19 beginning on May 1, 2017, based on the Supplemental UK MLAT. Further, because the grand jury 20 investigation is ongoing, and premature disclosure of its existence, nature, and focus could have an
